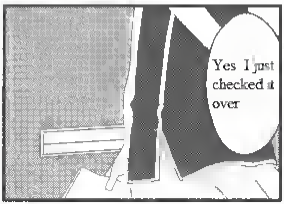
Ever since I read about the gingerbread house, I've always thought that
"Sweets contain a lot of hopes and dreams "



Yes I just checked it over

Do you have everything?
peek

This is a memory from not too long ago about me sweets and my little sister
Then I'm heading out!

If we haven't met before, nice to meet you!
I'm the huge fan of the Miyanaga sisters, 橘ケ谷 | れ!

After another person showed up in Saki's flashback, I couldn't imagine how that person plays into the story, so I didn't publish any books on the Miyanaga sisters for a while
However, this time I drew a happy story from their childhood!

Whatever happens to their family shouldn't affect their relationship ... I have this firm belief
But their back story hasn't been explained yet, so I put the emphasis on why Teru-chan likes sweets
I also drew this in hopes that there will be scenes like this in the original work.
I hope the people who love SakiTeru and who feel that there isn't enough of them will be satisfied from this book!
If you're not interested in SakiTeru, please take a brief look too!
Maybe by chance you'll fall in love with them and draw more pictures and doujins on them!
I'm filled with such ambition.
Those who love SakiTeru,
you must help spread the word! (laugh)

Manga. Losing family mahjong lose New Year's money
Anime losing no snacks wanting get yelled at
The artist based this on the changes in the anime
Though there is no evidence that Saki likes sweets
